

www.trippist.com/2007/09/

SEPTEMBER 14, 2007

Love Thy Neighbor

You might see a large white bus called De Burenwinkel around Amsterdam this month. De Burenwinkel means 'neighborshop' and in this tourbus, found in various neighborhoods throughout the month, you will find all kinds of neighbor-appropriate gift items. Need to reestablish some lost bonds, or rebuild a broken bridge? Perhaps you need the password to their wi-fi connection. Here you can buy a nice, comfy pair of shaggy slippers for that woman who always wears her sexy heels on the wooden floor above your bedroom. Or, some mutual party supplies for the next floor-wide bash. You can even pick up something for yourself and your own apartment. Look for the bus and spread the neighborly love.